

Antonio's week

Here is a table Antonio filled in last week.

He planned to do many things this week:

	Morning	Afternoon	Evening
Monday	At school	At football practice	-
Tuesday	At school	At the shops with mum	Watch TV
Wednesday	At school	At the library	Play with Tim
Thursday	At school	At French class	At Terence's birthday
Friday	On a school trip	School trip	Watch TV
Saturday	Visit grandparents	At the pool	At the cinema
Sunday	Sleep!	Watch TV	Practice Math

It is Sunday evening. Read what Antonio managed to do:

"This week was great! I didn't do everything I planned, though. I wasn't at school on Wednesday and Thursday – I was ill. This is why I didn't go to the library, my French class or my friend Terence's birthday. But Tim visited me on Wednesday, and we played with Legos. I was better on Friday, so the rest of the week was just as I planned. Only, I didn't watch TV on Sunday, because my dad wanted me to help him clean the car."
