

The Wilbours

The Wilbours

The Wilbours are a very happy family.

They live in Bristol. Daniel is the father and Ann is the mother.

They have got three children.

Mat is 14. He likes all sports and he plays basketball for his school team.

He would like to be a vet because he likes animals.

His sister's name is Lucy. She is very smart. She is a vegetarian and she likes music. She is 12. She likes travelling and wants to sail around the world one day.

David is 10 and he would like to be a history teacher. He likes reading about famous kings and battles. He also likes music and plays the guitar. He is funny and has a lot of friends.

Their grandparents live in London. They sometimes visit them on weekends and then they have a big lunch together.

The Wilbours haven't got any pets, but Lucy would like to have a cat one day.
