

Famous people at school

Here is what some famous people wanted to be when they were not famous:

Hello, my name is Jennifer. It means “the fair one”. I want to be a doctor, so I have to study a lot and go through ten years of training. It is a stressful job, but I think I will enjoy it. At school, I love talking to people best!

Jennifer Lawrence
(actress)

Hi, I’m George. George is the name of a knight who killed a dragon, but it means “a farmer”. However, I don’t want to work on land, or with plants. I don’t like biology and slow work. When I grow up, I want to be a race car driver. Whoosh!

George Lucas
(Star Wars director)

Hello, I'm Joanne. My name is an old one and means "God is gracious". My favourite subjects are English and French. I love to read books and write stories. I think I would like to be a teacher and work with children.

J K Rowling
(Harry Potter writer)

Hi, everyone. My name is Bill, short for William, which is "protector" in old French and German. I am very good at maths and one day I want to be a businessman with my own company.

Bill Gates
(Microsoft founder)

- Somebody once said, "When I grow up, I want to be happy."
What is happiness for you?
- Imagine yourself in your dream job, and write about the clothes you wear, the place you work, and people you meet.
- Write down five steps you have to take to get a job you would like to do.
