

Five famous streets

Champs Elysees, Paris

The boulevard lined with trees connects Arc de Triomphe and the Place de la Concorde. It has many shops, theatres, bars and restaurants at every step.

Wall Street, New York

This street is the centre of American financial industry. There are many offices, banks and the Stock Exchange, but also a museum and the gold vault. Many films have been filmed about it.

Ginza, Tokyo

It was ruined many times in the past, but today it is the fashion centre of Japan. There are many restaurants, art galleries and fashion boutiques, as well as electronic stores.

Chandni Chowk, Delhi

This is one of the oldest and busiest markets in Delhi. People say you can buy anything you want here – from electronics to local food. There are also many religious buildings: churches, temples and mosques.

Stradun, Dubrovnik

The famous street in the Old Town connects two gates – Ploče and Pile. It is full of cafes and restaurants to visit, as well as apartments to rent. It is very famous because of the Game of Thrones show.
