

Answer Key

WILL/WON'T

Use will or won't. There is an example at the beginning.

Matthew and Paige are talking about what they think life will be like in the next hundred years. They have very different opinions. Read and find out what they think about the future. Do you agree with Matthew or Paige?

Matthew: 'I think that in the future many people will be poor and unhappy. Most of them will lose jobs because robots will replace them at work. There will be more people so there won't be enough space for all of them on planet Earth. Because of that, there will also be more garbage which will damage our planet. Some animal species will die out because people will destroy their habitats. Factories will pollute air and water even more. There won't be many forests or parks so people won't spend time in nature. They will be sicker and they will live shorter.'

Paige: 'I think that people will realize how important it is to take care of our planet, so they will try to be responsible citizens when it comes to environment protection. Children will learn to recycle at an early age and they will organize clean-ups of parks and river banks. People will stop cutting trees and hunting animals. They won't throw plastics into the oceans. There will be more forests and fresh air so people will spend more time in nature. Everyone will be healthier and fitter. I think that life will be better for all of us in the future.'

GOING TO FUTURE

Use the correct form of going to future. There is an example at the beginning.

My plans for the next year:

- I am going to study more (study)
- I am not going to skip classes (not skip)
- I am going to take up a new foreign language, probably Swedish (take up)
- I am going to visit at least two foreign countries (visit)
- I am going to wake up earlier (wake up)
- I am not going to go to bed late (not go)

My big sister's plan for the next year:

- she is going to be more generous (be)
- she is going to adopt a dog (adopt)
- she is not going to spend a lot of money on clothes (not spend)
- she and her boyfriend are going to get married (get married)
- she is going to find another job (find)
- she and her boyfriend are not going to go out late at night (not go)

ADJECTIVES – OPPOSITE MEANING

Use prefixes in the box to get adjectives with opposite meaning. There is an example at the beginning.

-in (3X)	-im (5X)	-un (6X)	-il (2X)	-ir (2X)	-mis (2X)	-dis (2X)
----------	----------	----------	----------	----------	-----------	-----------

- healthy – unhealthy
- fair – unfair
- possible – impossible
- important – unimportant
- responsible – irresponsible
- comfortable – uncomfortable
- appropriate – inappropriate
- polite – impolite
- legal – illegal
- dependent – independent
- organized – disorganized
- limited – unlimited
- replaceable – irreplaceable
- breakable – unbreakable
- necessary – unnecessary
- decent – indecent
- patient – impatient
- understood – misunderstood
- logical – illogical
- perfect – imperfect
- connected – disconnected
- behaved – misbehaved
- mature – immature

ARTICLE 'THE' AND ZERO ARTICLE 'Ø'

Complete the text with article 'the' or Ø. There is an example at the beginning.

I asked my classmates to describe their favourite trips. Here are some of their descriptions.

Maya: 'Last year I visited Ø London, the capital city of Ø England and the UK. I wanted to visit the UK earlier, but due to pandemic, it was impossible. My friend Leslie lives in Ø London so she showed me around the city. I saw Ø Buckingham Palace, Ø Westminster Abbey, Ø Big Ben, the Globe Theatre and the Tower of London. We fed birds in Ø Hyde Park and had a picnic near the River Thames. Leslie's dad works in the Natural History Museum so I saw dinosaur skeletons there. It was amazing! After that, we went shopping in Ø Oxford Street. I absolutely loved everything about the UK. It was the best trip I have ever made. Next year Leslie is going to visit Ø Croatia. She wants to see the Plitvice Lakes and swim in the Adriatic Sea. I am going to take her rafting to the River Cetina. She is going to stay here for three weeks and I know we are going to have a great time. My aunt has an apartment on the island of Ø Korčula so we are going to spend two days there. Maybe I'll even take her to see Ø Dubrovnik. I can't wait for her to come and see the most beautiful country in the world.'

David: 'My favourite journey was to Ø Greenland two years ago. I went with my dad. We both love snow and cold winters so we really enjoyed ourselves there. We stayed in a small hotel in Ø Nuuk, the capital of Ø Greenland. Geographically, Ø Greenland is in Ø North America, but it actually belongs to Ø Denmark in Ø Europe. It is the largest island in the world. Our flight was long and I was a bit scared when we flew over the Atlantic Ocean, but everything went well. We saw many whales, went skiing and hiking and ate the most delicious fish. Those seven days in Ø Greenland were definitely the best days of my life!'

PHRASAL VERBS

Complete the two dialogues with the correct prepositions from the box. There is an example at the beginning.

- Andy, please get up and get ready for school!

down (2X)	on (3X)	up (7X)	in (1X)	after (1X)	out (2X)	over (2X)
-----------	---------	---------	---------	------------	----------	-----------

A: Hi, Ben! Can you come over and help me with my math homework? I can't figure out what I am doing wrong.

B: Sorry, but I can't make it tonight. I have to look after my baby sister. My parents are in a restaurant. I can't let them down because I promised to watch over her.

A: Calm down, it's not that urgent. We could meet up tomorrow. Just don't show up without snacks, you know I can't study when I'm hungry.

B: Oh, you big baby! When will you grow up? 😊

C: Hi, Dana! What's going on in your life?

D: Oh, don't ask me anything. Matt and I broke up yesterday. I'm sad and please don't even try to cheer me up.

C: Come on, don't be sad. Let's go out tonight! You must get over him and go on with your life. And you mustn't give up. You will quickly fall in love again!

D: I guess, you're right. I just need to pick up my brother from his football practice and I'm at your place at 8 o'clock!

C: Great! See you!